

DO NOT OPEN UNTIL 2066

The library is creating a time capsule to be opened in 50 years. This time capsule will include letters to future teens that use the library. Use the pencils and paper provided to tell teens in the future what you have learned from mistakes you have made, or problems you have observed in the community. When you are finished put your letter into the entry box.